

A fashion advertisement for Ahirain. The image features two models, a man and a woman, standing back-to-back. They are both wearing quilted, puffy jackets in a muted, earthy color palette. The woman on the right is looking over her shoulder towards the camera, while the man on the left is looking away. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with trees and a fence, suggesting a park or urban environment. The lighting is soft and natural, highlighting the texture of the jackets.
