

A full-body fashion photograph of a woman standing in front of an orange train car. She is wearing a light beige, double-breasted trench coat with a wide collar and a matching belt tied at the waist. Underneath, a light blue collared shirt is visible. She is also wearing white, knee-high, pointed-toe boots. Her hair is short and brown. The background is the side of an orange train car with a large window. The ground is paved with some dry leaves and grass.
